Holcombe Hockey Club vs. Wimbledon

Vitality Women's Premier Division

Saturday, 19th November
2022 (4pm pushback)

Welcome

Holcombe offer a very warm welcome to our opponents Wimbledon and all their avid supporters who have travelled across into hopefully sunny Kent today.

Welcome to our officials for the match, umpires Rebecca Woodcock and David Howell and match official Janet Sutton.

We all know hockey wouldn't exist without our dedicated team of volunteers and we would therefore like to offer a thank you to all those club members who dedicate so much time behind the scenes and at the forefront of our sport.

This week our special Holcombe volunteer shout out goes to Ray our scoreboard technician, who, week in week out, ensures the players and supporters are kept up to date with the crucial detail of the score line for each home game on pitch one!

Our home fans have been lucky enough to support our Women's 1s from the home terraces two weeks in a row. After a tense and very close match against Loughborough Students last week, which resulted in a 2-1 loss with a Tania Escaich goal, the crowd will be firmly behind the team to put on another entertaining performance and hopefully deliver the points they deserve to see them move up the table.

It's all to play for in the bottom half of the Vitality Women's Premier Division table, especially as we fast approach the winter break.

Enjoy your hockey this weekend everyone!

News

England Hockey have announced a new structure for the Men's Premier Division and Vitality Women's Premier Division for the 2022/23 season.

From September to December, the 12 Premier Division teams will play each other once before the league, as was the case in 2021/22, before the league splits into an upper section and lower section, both consisting of six teams.

Phase Three involves two separate sections. In the first, the top eight are split into two pools of four, while the bottom four carry over their existing points from phases one and two and play each other once more, with the bottom two relegated to Division One North or South. The top two remain in the Premier Division.

From the pool stage in phase three, there will be a crossover tournament, 'Finals Weekend', hosted at a named club venue. The top team from Pool A will play second in Pool B and vice-versa in the two semi-finals, before a Third-Placed Play-Off and Final.

The winner of Finals Weekend will take England's top EuroHockey League spot, with the winner of the Premier Division (at the conclusion of Phase Two) taking the second spot.

An England Hockey statement added: "With a schedule aligned around international commitments it will also ensure that England international players can be available for selection for all England Hockey League weekends in 2022-23.

"As the season progresses the stakes will increase with every match potentially impacting on a club's finishing position. There are also innovations in place with the Premier Division Finals including pool games that could end in shoot-outs for a bonus point for matches that end in a draw. The pinnacle of the season will be finals at a club venue allowing a club to celebrate the best of domestic hockey at their venue.

"Each phase of the season also has a prize with a Euro Hockey League space available at the conclusion of the league phase and on the final day of the season at the Premier Division Final. Should the same team win both phases then the second Euro Hockey League spot will revert to the runners-up in the final.

"In the build-up to the new season we'll preview the England Hockey Leagues in more detail. allow clubs, players and us at England Hockey the opportunity to fully support the Leagues."

Chief Executive Nick Pink said, "I am very pleased with the structure from 2022-23 onwards and would like to thank everyone involved for their contribution. We have tried to engage with our clubs throughout the process and I believe we are in a good place now.

"This structure means there is something at stake right throughout the campaign, ensuring the highest possible level of competition across the season.

"I also believe it is important we stick to this structure for a number of seasons now, in order for it to bed in properly and allow clubs, players and us at England Hockey the opportunity to fully support the Leagues."

Preview

By Lucas Ball

Holcombe play host to title contenders Wimbledon on Saturday afternoon (4pm) in the Vitality Women's Premier Division, looking for their first win in six to potentially move out of the bottom two.

Nick Bandurak's side narrowly lost 2-1 to Loughborough Students last weekend at Holcombe Park, with missed opportunities the tale of the afternoon as the hosts had two penalty strokes saved.

Wimbledon, meanwhile, currently sit in second place, five points behind leaders Surbiton. The visitors were also on their travels last weekend, drawing 0-0 away to Beeston.

In the Men's Premier Division, Holcombe's men travel to Oxted on Sunday afternoon looking for their fifth win in six matches.

Victory could see Barry Middleton's side move up the table and close the gap on leaders Old Georgians, who take on Reading this weekend.
