MATCHDAY PROGRAMME 2023/2024

WELCOME

Holcombe extends a very warm welcome today to our visitors Team Bath Buccaneers & Beeston, along with their travelling support and our officials: umpires Viv Carveth, Chris O'Hagan (women's), Jake Charles and Nick Padget (men's) and match official Ali Tompkins (both games).

The home fans look forward to welcoming our W1s back to Holcombe Park after two successful weekends on the road. Last Sunday saw them progress to the quarter-finals of the England Hockey Tier One Cup with a 5-2 victory over Trojans. The previous Saturday saw a rewarding 6-1 away win against Harlestone Magpies, which enabled the team to move up the league into second place.

The men were on their travels last weekend, facing the University of Nottingham and producing a scintillating performance running out 12-1 winners with Nick Bandurak weighing in with half of the goals, supported by two each for Alex Pendle and Tom Russell and a goal apiece for Phil Roper and Hayden Phillips. The top of the table remains tight with Old Georgians and Surbiton on 21 points, Holcombe three points back in third and Wimbledon and Hampstead & Westminster on 15 points each occupying fourth and fifth places respectively.

The fans are certainly excited to be backing our Holcombe teams from the home terrace, and we all look forward to some sparkling double-header action at Holcombe Park. After the second match is a Beer Pong tournament, so stick around and join in with the fun!

Enjoy your hockey this weekend everyone!

MATCH PREVIEW - W1s VS. TEAM BATH BUCCANEERS

By Lucas Ball

Holcombe are looking for their fourth straight league win and fifth in all competitions when Team Bath Buccaneers travel to Kent on Saturday (2pm).

Nick Bandurak's side sit second in the Vitality Division One South with four wins from five league games and also progressed to the quarter-finals of the England Hockey Cup on Sunday with a 5-2 win over Trojans.

Bath, meanwhile, have won one and lost four of their opening five, their sole victory coming against Harlestone Magpies, who are bottom with five defeats in five matches, including a 6-1 loss to Holcombe.

Emma Bandurak will be hoping to continue her goalscoring form after another brace at Trojans took her to seven goals for the season.

For the visitors, scoring goals has proved their biggest problem so far this campaign. They sit joint-bottom of the scoring charts with ninth-placed Southgate, one of the newly-promoted sides.

They have the fourth worst defensive record, with Wimbledon 2s, Southgate and Harlestone Magpies having conceded more. Holcombe, meanwhile, boast the best defensive record in the division and second-highest goal tally.

Entry at Holcombe Park is free on Saturday. The match will be streamed on Veo Live and updates posted on our social media channels.

MATCH PREVIEW - M1s VS. BEESTON

By Lucas Ball

Holcombe are aiming for back-to-back wins as they take on out-of-form Beeston on Saturday evening (6pm).

Barry Middleton's side sit in standalone third after a 12-1 win over the University of Nottingham last weekend made it four wins in five league matches.

Captain Nick Bandurak returned to the side in Nottingham after missing three games with injury, scoring six goals to boost his top-scorer push.

Tom Russell and Alex Pendle both added braces as their impressive goal-scoring form continued, both having scored four in their last three matches.

Tim Guise-Brown returns from injury to face Beeston but Greg Nolan misses out against his former club.

Beeston won three of their opening five games but have since conceded 25 goals in just three games, losing 12-4 to Old Georgians, 9-1 to Surbiton and 4-3 to Oxted to leave them in eight-place.

Holcombe took four points from last season's two meetings, drawing 3-3 at the Nottingham Hockey Centre in Phase One after a late Bees comeback before winning 6-1 at Holcombe Park in Phase Three, the goals including another Bandurak hat-trick.

Entry at Holcombe Park is free on Saturday. The match will be streamed on Veo Live and updates posted on our social media channels.

MATCH REPORT: UNIVERSITY OF NOTTINGHAM 1-12 M1s

By Lucas Ball

Holcombe emphatically returned to winning ways in the Premier Division with their 12-1 dismantling of the University of Nottingham at the Nottingham Hockey Centre on Saturday evening.

Goals from Nick Bandurak (6), Tom Russell (2), Alex Pendle (2), Phil Roper and Hayden Phillips ensured that the three points went the way of Barry Middleton's side, who are next in action at Holcombe Park against Beeston next Saturday (6pm).

The visitors were looking for a win to all but secure a place in the top-six for Phase Two of the Premier Division season, now needing only two points at most from their remaining three matches to secure said qualification against Beeston, Cardiff & Met (both home) and Hampstead & Westminster (away).

The home side, meanwhile, are still searching for their first points of the season, losing all eight matches so far in Phase One, conceding 39 goals in the process having scored just nine.

Truthfully, on another day, Holcombe could have had even more goals – particularly when you consider that the first 20 minutes went by without a goal.

It was a frenetic start to the match that saw a number of chances go begging. Phillips found Roper in space in the circle early on with only a loose touch letting the chance go amiss before a superb cutback from Pendle was somehow not turned in inside the opening ten minutes.

Sam Taylor saw a fine reverse-stick finish disallowed for a foot in the build-up, too, before a string of penalty corners were kept out by the hosts.

Pendle also came close to breaking the deadlock himself – the chance sandwiched by that string of corners – with Femi Owolade-Coombes' ball into the circle touched by Phillips into the path of the Great Britain Elite Development Programme forward for him to force a save from goalkeeper Jamie Butler. Owolade-Coombes had stepped forward from defence impressively on his Premier Division debut to aid the attack.

Early into the second period, though, the goal finally came for Holcombe. The returning Bandurak – who missed the last three matches through injury – got the beating of Butler from a penalty corner to give Holcombe the lead – and Middleton's men never looked back.

Just two minutes later, Roper came close to beating Butler, the save earning Holcombe a long corner. The set piece was taken quickly and Bandurak was able to beat his marker to the ball to deflect home from close to the penalty spot.

Russell made it three goals in the space of five minutes when he finished off a devastating counter-attack, the ever-green Middleton teeing the forward up for a simple finish.

The hosts pulled a goal back just before the half-hour mark in somewhat controversial circumstances. Middleton appeared to be fouled on the edge of Nottingham's defensive quarter, the decision instead going the other way. Nottingham quickly broke away and made use of the spare man, though there were question marks as to whether Dan Hunt touched the ball in front of Ollie Payne to deflect past the Great Britain goalkeeper.

Bandurak soon restored Holcombe's three-goal advantage, though, completing a nine-minute hat-trick as he swivelled superbly at the top of the circle and fired past Butler into the top corner.

The former Cannock man netted his fourth before the half-time break, converting from yet another penalty corner to send Holcombe into the break four goals up.

Jake Owen fired an effort narrowly wide less than a minute into the second half before Rob Field forced another save from Butler. Roper also played another enticing ball across the circle which evaded a teammate.

The wait for a second-half goal, however, lasted less than five minutes as Bandurak had a deflection saved by Butler, before pushing the rebound powerfully into the top corner.

The university side almost pulled another back soon after as they hit the bar from a stinging reverse effort, but it was Holcombe who remained in control.

Pendle added his third in as many matches as he deflected in from close range following Bandurak's touch, with the provider then turning scorer once more as he added his sixth before the end of the third period to complete a double hat-trick.

Former Loughborough Students man Pendle made it a brace for himself when Field hit a dangerous reverse cross in to make the score 9-1 with a quarter still to play.

Russell made it double figures with a goal around ninety seconds into the final period before Nottingham started to come back into the game.

Payne kept out two penalty corners with the hosts enjoying some of their best spells of possession – though there was still more punishment to come the way of the university outfit.

Roper broke into the circle and fired a brilliant reverse effort into the top corner for Holcombe's 11th goal before two penalty corner opportunities were squandered for the away side.

Phillips then saw another effort saved by Butler before Field hit the post, the former then netting his first of the season with almost the last touch of the match as he deflected into the goal.

The result marks Holcombe's biggest-ever Premier Division win and means they have now scored 19 goals in their last two away matches, and 27 away goals in four matches on the road so far this campaign.

Middleton's side face Beeston, who have conceded 25 in their last three matches (12 to Old Georgians, nine to Surbiton and four to Oxted), on Saturday at 6pm at Holcombe Park looking for their seventh win in nine Premier Division matches.

Entry is free at Holcombe Park and the match is followed by our next club social, a Beer Pong tournament!

The University of Nottingham are at home once more at 6:30pm against Wimbledon, with the London side having won their last two against Holcombe (3-0) and Southgate (5-2).

MATCH REPORT:

TROJANS 2-5 W1s

By Lucas Ball

Holcombe progressed to the quarter-finals of the England Hockey Tier One Cup with a 5-2 victory over Trojans on Sunday afternoon.

Goals from Emma Bandurak (2), Deanna Ritchie, Leisa Randall and Phoebe Steele secured Holcombe's spot in the last-eight, Nick Bandurak's second-placed Vitality Division One South side beating the Vitality Conference West table-toppers in Eastleigh.

It marks Holcombe's fourth straight win in all competitions after league wins against Sevenoaks (3-0), Slough (3-1) and Harleston Magpies (6-1). More last-16 fixtures take place on Monday and Tuesday, with Surbiton 2s straight through to the quarter-finals after receiving a bye.

Trojans struggled to cope with Holcombe's attacking play for long spells of the match and would have conceded more were it not for an impressive goalkeeping display between the posts.

Despite that, it was Tilly Woodhead who was first forced into action within the first minute as she denied the hosts a quick-fire opener.

Holcombe then started to create some opportunities of their own, Jade van der Zwan's pass across goal unmet by any onrushing attackers before Leisa Randall forced a good save out of the 'keeper.

Woodhead was once more called into action soon after. First, she made a superb tackle as a Trojans attacker attempted to go around her, before making a brilliant reaction save and clearing while still down on the floor.

The lead came just before the quarter of an hour mark for the visitors after Bandurak drilled a brilliant, direct ball into van der Zwan. The Australian drove forward and released New Zealand international Ritchie, who took the ball around the goalkeeper and finished into an empty goal.

Bandurak looked for a deflection at Holcombe's first penalty corner before the end of the first quarter, but it flew over the bar.

Trojans levelled early in the second quarter with a deflection at the far post from Charlotte Jones before Randall restored the advantage after a brilliant pass through from Catherine Ledesma.

Ritchie had a couple of chances to extend the lead but was denied from a deflection from Steele's shot before Marian Ledesma forced another save.

Bandurak drag-flicked home on the stroke of half-time to deservedly extend Holcombe's advantage.

The third quarter was a slightly quieter affair in terms of chances but still saw two goals go in.

Randall almost scored her second before it was stopped almost on the line and then Trojans scored their second, Amy Sheehan hitting past Woodhead from a penalty corner.

Marian Ledesma once again called the hosts' 'keeper into action before Steele scored a drag-flick of her own to make it 4-2.

Bandurak's side looked the most likely to add more goals in the final period as van der Zwan came close to her first Holcombe goal.

It was another quick counter-attack that led to the fifth goal. Bandurak made a brilliant tackle inside Holcombe's circle to deny an almost-certain goal before running forward, the ball finding her in the circle as she finished for her second of the match!

Lottie Bingham, once again impressive, was the latest Holcombe player to force the home goalkeeper into a save before Sophie Eldred too was denied from close range.

Tilly Tillings was also denied as she looked for her first Holcombe goal from another quick counter-attack, with Hannah Bond also denied before van der Zwan hit the sideboard late on.

Ritchie was too denied a second goal in the closing stages before Catherine Ledesma won another penalty corner for Holcombe, with a variation finding Bandurak to flick at goal, though her effort was saved as she aimed for a hat-trick.

Holcombe saw out the final minutes comfortably to reach the quarter-finals and are back in Vitality Division One South action at home to Team Bath Buccaneers on Saturday at Holcombe Park (2pm).

Entry is free to watch the match, with Holcombe's men also taking on Beeston at 6pm.

Trojans, meanwhile, will face Reading 2s at home as they look to keep their spot at the top of the Vitality Conference West.

MATCH REPORT: M1s

0-3 WIMBLEDON

By Lucas Ball

Holcombe suffered their first Premier Division defeat in four matches as Wimbledon ran out 3-0 victors at Holcombe Park on Sunday afternoon.

Karl Stagno's side recorded their first win in Medway for three years by taking the three points, lifting themselves to fifth in the table in the process.

Barry Middleton's team made a bright start, with Rob Field – fresh from scoring his first goal of the season on Saturday – twice came close to breaking the deadlock in the first quarter, either side of Ollie Payne making a good save to deny the visitors.

Alex Pendle, who netted his first two Holcombe goals against East Grinstead, was denied with an upright reverse effort midway through the second quarter, Phil Roper then lifting an effort onto the roof of the net as Holcombe chased the opener.

Payne was once more forced into action at a Wimbledon penalty corner before Tim Guise-Brown drag-flicked a penalty corner of Holcombe's own over the bar on the stroke of half-time.

Ore Ogunlana was twice forced into action in the opening two minutes of the second half to deny Hayden Phillips and Guise-Brown but just a few minutes later, Stagno's men took the lead.

Wimbledon poked the ball home following a goal-mouth scramble, with Payne forced into action on a number of occasions again before the end of the third period.

Early into the final period, Wimbledon reduced the chances of a Holcombe comeback as they converted a penalty stroke following a deliberate foul in the circle,

The visitors continued to turn the screw with Payne and Holcombe's backline remaining busy, Wimbledon extending their lead with just over 10 minutes to play as Payne was beaten by a superb drag-flick into the top corner.

Holcombe tried to push for a late consolation but struggled to break down the Wimbledon defence, their only chances coming very late on as Roper was twice denied brilliantly by the impressive Ogunlana.

EMMA BANDURAK: MORE TO COME FROM HOLCOMBE

Emma Bandurak is enjoying the positive start that Holcombe have made to the season but believes there is still more to come from the Kent outfit.

Bandurak, who is close to a decade of service with the Incredible Holcs, has scored seven goals in six matches in all competitions so far this season, while also forming a key part of the backline that currently boasts the strongest defensive record in the Vitality Division One South.

Bandurak's husband and England and Great Britain forward, Nick Bandurak, is head coach and has led his side to four wins in five league matches, while they also progressed to the quarter-finals of the England Hockey Cup with a 5-2 win at Trojans on Sunday. He has been joined by New Zealand international Brad Read as assistant coach this season, alongside Hayden Phillips who immediately joined Bandurak's staff when he accepted the role last summer.

That victory made it 11 goals in two games for Holcombe, with their goalscoring struggles arguably the main reason behind last season's relegation. An almost all-new forward line with recruits Deanna Ritchie, Jade van der Zwan, Tilly Tillings and Lottie Bingham, aided by the likes of long-serving Leisa Randall in attack, have re-energised Holcombe, who have only been out-scored in the league by leaders Surbiton 2s.

Bandurak said: "I think we're doing really well and the nice thing over the last couple of weeks is that we've got better with each performance.

"It's quite funny really that we're almost picking holes in the games that we've won, we're trying to set our standards really high in terms of how we can keep getting better and improving performance on performance.

"It's been really good fun and hopefully we'll keep getting better and performing.

"Yes, with the confidence [there could have been a slight hangover from last season]. I think I'm in my ninth year now at Holcombe and for the last three or four years it has been quite rough going, there's a bit of a mentality shift now in that we're actually winning games comfortably rather than losing narrowly, even last year, it was often by the odd goal or we drew too many games and ended up with our fate last season.

"I think there is a bit of a confidence re-build but I like our attitude at the moment. We were fuming that we only beat Harlestone, for example, 6-1. We were agitated with how we played and think we can be better.

"It's nice that some of the new girls who have come in are completely fresh from the last few years at Holcombe and I think that's really shown with how they play, they play really freely and some of the stuff has been really good.

"I shouldn't say that I pass the ball and then admire what's happening but there's definitely been points this year when I have been able to pass the ball and think 'wow, we've got some real quality here'.

"I suppose in the last couple of years my role has changed from being one of the younger ones to now one of the slightly older in the team, second-eldest now I think!

"It's about how we can help them develop and give them the space to be free and try things.

"Have a go at your one v one battles, and if it goes wrong we're behind you to pick I up.

“I’m hoping for the younger girls that have come in that they feel like they can really express themselves when they play and they don’t have to worry about what school work they’ve got going on etc.

“It should be a fun place for them to come to try new skills and get really stuck in, they’re doing brilliantly so it’s really nice to be a part of and watch them get better each week.

“I think building on the group that we had last year who stayed - and I do think we were really unfortunate with where we were last year, we just didn’t put the ball away at the top end of the pitch - our midfield hasn’t changed significantly, our backline hasn’t really changed at all.

“With the fresh faces coming in, they’ve got that freedom and didn’t deal with the relegation last year, they’re essentially just playing free and we’re hopefully giving them the platform to do that with the backline and the midfield that we’ve got.

“It’s been quite an easy transition and I did expect this from us, I think I’d have been really disappointed if we hadn’t made this kind of start.

“We want to have that outlook that we’re a Premier Division team trying to get back up, that’s the standard we’re setting. We are currently where I’d expect us to be.

“I really love playing at Holcombe. I like the pitch, the set-up and the crowd really makes a difference.

“I really got the sense that the new girls - we had a couple of away games at the start - really got that homely sense of the club after we’d played there a couple of times this season. I’m really looking forward to this weekend, the double-headers are always really nice and I always enjoy playing at Holcombe.

“I’ve played there long enough now that it’s a safe place to play!

“What would be really nice is that as we keep improving, creating chances and people’s confidence starts to build, we can make more of those opportunities and score more. I think at the weekend we let Trojans back in a little bit and I think it should have been a shut door pretty early on with the amount of chances we created.

“We’ve been having a lot of possession, a lot of the ball in our games at the moment and it’s natural that there are going to be some lapses in that but it’s how we can make the scoreboard as much in our favour as possible and take those chances without letting anyone get a counter-attacking goal or similar against us.

“The amount of goals we’ve scored still, though, has been really positive.

“The challenge for us is how can we reduce the amount of lapses in our performances now because we do tend to ebb and flow a little bit, especially with how high we’ve set our standards and how good we can be in matchplay.”

“I think with all of the teams, they can be quite tough to beat and we have to break them down. Over the last couple of weeks, we’ve faced a lot of packed circles, people like to do that so it’s about how we can create space for ourselves and how we create space for the hockey that we want to play in that style.

“It’s been a bit of a recurring theme that teams have caught us on the counter so I’m hoping this week that we can tighten that up and keep creating the amount of opportunities that we have been.

“We’ve got a really good success rate on our corners as well at the moment so essentially it’s about building on the performances and tightening up our counter-defence.

“Previously, I’ve been playing in the Prem for ages so you know who you’re coming up against, who’s doing what on corners. I know the typical players you’re going to get whereas this year, each week has been a bit of a surprise in terms of what you’re coming up against.

“We haven’t played against some of these teams, we don’t necessarily know how they’re going to press us, who their key players are, how fast some of them are going to be - I’ve experienced that a little bit this year compared to previous!

“It’s an interesting one because I like the questions it asks us, it’s a good one for us as a team to have to figure that out on the pitch and I think we’re doing well with that but it does take time.

“Normally, we know how we’re going to press, we know how we’re going to be pressed and what opportunities they’re going to look for so it normally takes the first quarter to work out what they’re doing and how we can counteract it - it’s definitely been interesting playing against some new teams.

“That’s been a nice part of the challenge as well for us, actually figuring out how we can do things differently as well.

“I think we’ve set ourselves up really nicely coming up to this next round of games, you can’t really say anything for the first half of the league - we have no idea what it’ll look like after Christmas.

“I just hope we continue at the rate that we’re going and I think with how we’re training, how the boys set us up and the principles that we’ve got, if we stick to that and keep it simple, I think we’ll do really well in the remainder of the games in the run-up to indoor.

“It’s just about building on that every week and listening to the three lovely coaches that we have on the pitch.

“Indoor feels like it’s crept up earlier than I was anticipating. I really just want us to build on last year.

“We’d been in the Prem for a while and it was interesting to figure out what the level was like last year. I’m hoping we do a lot better than last year but it will be interesting, there’s two good teams coming down from the Prem as well so it always looks a bit different.

“Now we’ve settled in that league, we know what to expect in terms of the level so I’d hope we do better than last year.

“Obviously we’d love to back up and get back to where we were with indoor but it’s a tough round of eight games in two weekends so we’ll just have to see how we go!”

Bandurak also paid tribute to Read, who has impressed the squad since re-joining the club over the summer.

“He’s teaching an old dog some new tricks maybe! It’s really nice to have a coach concentrated on the backline, I don’t think I’ve ever been on a team where I’ve actually had one of my coaches be a defender as well so to have those conversations and figure things out on the pitch with him is great.

“We’re spoilt really, let’s be honest, with the three coaches that we’ve got and we definitely make the most of having them there. Brad’s been awesome, he’s slotted into the group perfectly and our little Kiwi contingent continues to grow! It’s really good.”

Entry is free at Holcombe Park for all first-team home matches, with Holcombe’s Women facing three more home fixtures before Christmas against Team Bath Buccaneers (Saturday, 2pm), Canterbury (Saturday, 11th November, 2pm) and Southgate, who Holcombe beat on the opening day (Saturday, 2nd December, 2pm).

FAITHDEAN PLC

Goalkeeper:
Andy Perkins (M3s) – not played for 18 months but still got it!

Defence:
Amy Londesbrough (W4s) – player of the match.
Femi Owolade-Coombes (M2s) – very assured performance playing sweeper as the M2s picked up their first points of the season, topped off with scoring a drag-flick.
Amelia Allen (W5s) – payer of the match.
Caitlin Poynton (W3s) – joint player of the match.

Midfield:
Will Maher (Heroes) – joint player of the match.
Josh Fairs (Harriers) – player of the match.
Etienne Bunker (W2s) – player of the match.
Peter Brooks van Zyl (M6s) – player of the match.

Forwards:

Alex Pendle (M1s) – scored his first two Holcombe goals against East Grinstead on Saturday before nearly adding to his tally against Wimbledon on Sunday
Jade van der Zwan (W1s) – player of the match.

Substitutes:

Vince Lewis (M5s) – player of the match.
Anna Osborne (W4s) – great game, close to player of the match.
Cayne Jeffery (Hurricanes) – player of the match, stopped a sure goal from going in.
Harrison Andrews (Harriers) – played across midfield and in the front-three, good job all-round.
Grace Zdesenko (W3s) – joint player of the match.
Amelia Ferguson (W3s) – strong performance.
Harry Cook (Heroes) – joint player of the match.

Umpires:

Mark Foakes – umpired the W3s on Saturday and U14 Girls on Sunday as we'll as playing Fred Walker – umpired the Harriers at 10:30am, played and then umpired the U14 Girls on Sunday with Mark.

Umpires of the month:

Rich Spackman – passed his Level One, has been umpiring on Saturdays as well as playing and doing Sunday junior matches.
Fred Walker – umpiring as well as playing on Saturdays and umpiring junior fixtures on Sundays.

Holcombe Team of the Week - 28th/29th October, 2023
Congratulations to everyone selected in this edition of the Holcombe Team of the Week!

Goalkeeper:

Tilly Woodhead (W1s) – made an impressive triple-save during the cup win over Trojans and won player of the match.

Defence:

Hayden Phillips (M1s) – involved in a number of positive moves from wing-back for our M1s against the University of Nottingham, before scoring late on for his first goal of the season.
Emma Bandurak (W1s) – two goals in the cup win over Trojans as well as a goal-saving tackle that started the move for her second goal.
Femi Owolade-Coombes (M1s) – an assured Premier Division debut on Saturday evening, stepping forward well from defence. Started a dangerous attack with a great ball into the circle that led to a goal.
Hannah Bond (W1s) – consistently provided an outlet on either flank and was involved in a number of creative attacking moves.

Midfield:

Tom Russell (M1s) – linked up well with Holcombe’s other attacking players against the University of Nottingham and scored two goals in our 12-1 victory.

Phoebe Steele (W1s) – strong display in midfield including a goal from a penalty corner.

Rhodri Furlong (M1s) – the self-proclaimed “people’s champion” was once again impressive in midfield, even with a broken finger.

Phil Roper (M1s) – a constant thorn in the side of the Nottingham backline, leading countless attacks and scoring a goal.

Forwards:

Nick Bandurak (M1s) – scored six (yes, six) goals against the University of Nottingham to take his tally to 13 goals in seven competitive matches this season.

Alex Pendle (M1s) – a brace from the former Loughborough Students man took him to four goals for the season.

Substitutes:

Deanna Ritchie (W1s) – another goal for the New Zealand international.

Jade van der Zwan (W1s) – created a number of good opportunities through either driving runs or superb passes on Sunday afternoon.

Leisa Randall (W1s) – scored her first goal of the season against Trojans.

Jake Owen (M1s) – involved in a number of good attacking scenarios and came close to scoring.

Rob Field (M1s) – strong display in attack on Saturday evening, also hit the post.

Sophie Eldred (W1s) – solid in both defensive and midfield roles on Sunday afternoon as our W1s reached the quarter-finals of the cup.

Lucy Whalley (W1s) – made a number of driving, skilful runs from midfield to take the game to Trojans.

DoDs:

W1s – Emma Bandurak

Movember 2023 campaign launched

Mental health matters. Movember is working to help men stay mentally healthy, but they can’t do it alone. Please donate to our Movember efforts and support men's health.

We are taking part in Movember for the #EHLPrem, raising money with other clubs for men's health - our 11th November fixture against Cardiff & Met will be a designated Movember fixture with opportunities to donate and fundraise!

Movember is open to the whole club and our team page - with updates hopefully coming soon is available here. You can also donate via this link.
