MATCHDAY PROGRAMME 2023/2024

WELCOME

Welcome back to Holcombe Park for a huge Sunday afternoon clash against Division One South leaders Surbiton 2s for our W1s!

Holcombe extend a very warm welcome to the visiting team, Surbiton 2s, along with their travelling spectators. We also welcome our officials - umpires: Elysee Enness-Laporte & Neil Smith and Match Official: Gill Collins.

Following yesterday's 1-1 draw with Slough, our W1s sit second - ten points behind Surbiton 2s and a point ahead of third-placed Barnes with a game-in-hand heading into today's match.

The two sides were closely matched earlier in the season as Will Fulker's side relied on two late, late goals to take the points at Sugden Road.

With five matches to go after today in the promotion race, it is a great opportunity to move away from Barnes and edge closer to an immediate Premier Division return!

We hope everyone who played yesterday enjoyed their weekend hockey and enjoys the match today at Holcombe Park!

MATCH PREVIEW - W1s VS. SURBITON

2s

By Lucas Ball

Holcombe are looking for a fourth win in five Division One South matches as league leaders Surbiton 2s visit Holcombe Park on Sunday afternoon (1:30pm).

Holcs had beaten Wimbledon 2s, Southgate and Sevenoaks in consecutive league matches before yesterday's 1-1 draw with Slough, which left Nick Bandurak's side a point clear of Barnes in the promotion race with a game-in-hand.

Surbiton ran out 2-1 winners in a tightly-contested affair in September, Holcombe leading for a long period through Emma Bandurak before two goals in the last five minutes gave Surbiton the three points.

Will Fulker's side have won 12 matches out of 12, including beating relegation Wimbledon 2s 4-3 yesterday.

They have scored 41 goals in the process - including nine in their last two - compared to Holcombe's 38 and conceded just 14, the best defensive record in the division. Holcombe have conceded 19 goals in 12 games.

Victory for Holcombe would see them move four points clear of Barnes with five games to go in the promotion race.

Deanna Ritchie will be hoping to get on the scoresheet once more after scoring her first goal in five matches yesterday to reach double figures in the league.

Entry at Holcombe Park is free on Sunday. Updates will be posted across our social media channels.

MATCH REPORT - OLD GEORGIANS 3-2

M1s

By Lucas Ball

Holcombe were narrowly beaten 3-2 in their first Premier Division Phase Two match by champions and league leaders Old Georgians.

Matt Brown gave the hosts the lead in the third quarter before Tom O'Keeffe and Alex Pendle gave Holcs the lead. Old Georgians turned things around in the final period courtesy of goals from Alan Forsyth and Lee Morton.

The first chance of the game fell Holcombe's way when Tom Russell forced former Holcombe goalkeeper George Pinner into action early on before Chris Griffiths struck a powerful effort into the sideboard at the other end.

Ollie Payne then made a good save to deny the hosts from close range before Russell again came close, this time deflecting just wide from a Sam Taylor pass.

The two sides continued to trade blows in the second quarter, Barry Middleton deflecting an Old Georgians' penalty corner off the line before Pinner saved from Guise-Brown from a Holcombe corner.

Phil Roper then made a brilliant tackle to deny the hosts a great opportunity in front of goal to ensure the two sides went into half-time level.

Russell forced another save from Pinner to start the second half after Hayden Phillips teed up the forward, before Brown gave Ashley Jackson's side the lead.

Payne then made a brilliant double save to deny the hosts a second before Tom O'Keeffe scored a superb equaliser for his first goal of the season.

The ball fell the way of O'Keeffe in the circle and he brilliantly dispatched an upright reverse effort into the bottom corner on the turn.

Pendle put Middleton's side in front seven minutes later, at the end of the third quarter, from close range. Taylor found Russell who went on a mazy run from the right-hand-side, teeing up Pendle on the back post for his eighth Premier Division goal of the season.

Jackson's men levelled early on in the final period through Morton, before they had a goal disallowed minutes later.

The ball flicked the bicep of Henry Weir on the way in – the umpires took some time to discuss before disallowing the goal, with Payne and Weir then yellow-carded for their roles in the aftermath.

Eddie Rowney replaced Payne for those five minutes to make his Premier Division debut late on against the champions.

Forsyth completed a late turnaround for the hosts to leave Holcombe six points behind the top-two with four Phase Two matches to play – with Old Georgians heading to second-placed Surbiton this weekend, while Holcombe have no game this weekend due to Wimbledon's involvement in European indoor hockey.

The result leaves Holcombe still waiting on their first win against the champions since 2020.

Congratulations to Eddie on making his Premier Division debut!

MATCH REPORT - SLOUGH 1-1 W1s

By Lucas Ball

Holcombe missed their opportunity to go three points clear of promotion rivals Barnes on Saturday afternoon as Nick Bandurak's side drew 1-1 with fifth-placed Slough at Upton Court Road.

Deanna Ritchie gave Holcombe the lead four minutes before half-time but it took just four minutes after that break for the hosts to equalise through Laura Bailey.

With league leaders – and Sunday's opponents – Surbiton 2s unable to be promoted, it is likely between Holcombe and Barnes to win promotion by finishing second, with Holcs now a point clear of Barnes with a game-in-hand after the London side lost 2-0 at Harleston Magpies on Saturday.

Bandurak's side were looking for a fourth straight Division One South victory having beaten Wimbledon 2s, Southgate and Sevenoaks in their last three.

In a quiet first quarter, the only two chances came from penalty corners – the hosts seeing a slip routine charged down by Holcombe's defence before Phoebe Steele – who had three goals in her last two appearances heading into Saturday's match – drag-flicked narrowly wide at the other end.

Slough defended another corner well as Holcombe looked to shift up a gear early on in the second quarter, though there was certainly an argument that the foul on Ritchie leading to the corner could have been given as a penalty stroke.

A scrappy period followed as both teams looked to gain more control, Holcombe gaining territory but unable to produce those final passes and touches until a few minutes before half-time, a neat move down the right leading to the opening goal.

The ball fell to Bethan Hodges in the circle, her shot was deflected away but Ritchie was on hand to finish from close range for her 10th league goal of the season and 11th in all competitions.

Holcs defended two more penalty corners well before the end of the half, heading into the break with their lead intact.

Early on in the third period, Holcombe had a great opportunity to double their advantage. Emma Bandurak played a brilliant long ball into Ritchie, who found Marian Ledesma in the circle, the latter fouled as she tried to round the goalkeeper – penalty stroke given.

Bandurak stepped up but saw an effort well-saved by Asha Tranquille-Day.

Soon after, Slough's equaliser came through Bailey. She worked space brilliantly at the edge of the circle with some great stick skills, before unleashing a powerful strike into the bottom corner past Tilly Woodhead to level the scores.

Holcombe's response in possession was fairly positive but Anna Baker did squander a great chance to complete a quick-fire turnaround for the hosts, hitting an awkward effort off-target from just a few yards out.

Slough then earned another penalty corner with Woodhead superbly saving three times at the set piece before a penalty stroke was awarded.

Baker stepped up but Woodhead made another brilliant save, diving to her right and reaching up to stop the hosts from taking the lead.

Bandurak and Hattie Jones came close to restoring Holcombe's lead from a penalty corner of their own but both were denied.

Holcombe's attempts to build late pressure were generally rebuffed, with opportunities limited to two penalty corners which were well-defended in the final period. Bandurak's side struggled to create any open play chances late on and had to settle for a point in the first match of two this weekend.

Holcombe face Surbiton 2s on Sunday (1:30pm) at Holcombe Park – entry is free and updates will be provided across our social media channels.

MATCH REPORT: SEVENOAKS 1-2 W1s

By Lucas Ball

Holcombe made it three consecutive Division One South wins at Sevenoaks on Saturday afternoon courtesy of first-quarter goals from Phoebe Steele and Catherine Ledesma.

Lily Elliott halved the deficit at the end of the third quarter but Nick Bandurak's side were able to hold on for three points.

Quick link-up play between Emma Bandurak, Tilly Tillings and Ledesma won Holcombe a penalty corner inside the opening five minutes, Steele dispatching the drag-flick to give Holcs the lead and score her third in two matches, taking her tally to eight league goals this season, nine in all competitions.

Holcombe's early dominance continued with occasional loose touches or inaccurate final-third passes leading to attacks breaking down.

Hannah Carney, making her second Division One South appearance of the season, was then twice denied by Meg James as Holcombe looked to double their advantage.

A few minutes later, Lottie Bingham beat two players before winning a free hit on the edge of the Sevenoaks circle, teeing up Ledesma who drove in and finished into the opposite corner on her reverse for her second Division One goal of the season.

Four consecutive penalty corners at the end of Q1 brought no further goals for the visitors, Harriet Pittard's slap from the last just evading injector Deanna Ritchie's stick on the back post.

Two more corners came in the second period with no reward before, on the stroke of half-time, Bethan Hodges squandered a good chance to make it 3-0 after a quick counter-attack involving Bingham and Ritchie.

Holcombe had a third ruled out early on in the second half from yet another penalty corner as Emma Bandurak's hit found the net, rather than the backboard.

The third quarter saw little other action of note until Elliott's powerful hit – from another penalty corner – was deflected off the number one runner and past Tilly Woodhead to give Sevenoaks hope.

Sevenoaks pushed for a late equaliser but Holcombe held on for a third straight win.

BRAD READ KEEN TO SHOW WIMBLEDON A “PROPER HOLCOMBE PERFORMANCE” AS PHASE TWO HALTED, WITH HOLCOMBE’S WOMEN IN DOUBLE-HEADER ACTION THIS WEEKEND

By Lucas Ball

Brad Read admits Holcombe’s men were left disappointed after Saturday’s 3-2 defeat against Old Georgians, leaving Barry Middleton’s side still looking for a first win since 2020 against the champions and current league leaders.

Holcombe began Phase Two of their Premier Division campaign with a trip to St. George's College in Weybridge and have a weekend off ahead of facing Surbiton at Holcombe Park next Saturday (24th February). They will then face Wimbledon away on Thursday, 29th February, ahead of another home game against Hampstead & Westminster and a trip to Southgate.

Wimbledon are currently in EuroHockey Indoor Club Cup action, hence Saturday's fixture being re-arranged.

Saturday's defeat leaves Holcombe six points behind both Old Georgians and Surbiton, who meet on Saturday, meaning their most likely route back into Europe this season is now via the League Finals weekend, the same route via which Holcombe qualified last season for the Euro Hockey League (EHL).

Read said: "We pushed them a lot throughout the game and it was pretty disappointing to lose in the end, especially with the number of chances we created, it was a lot more than we've had in some previous games against them.

"It's promising signs for going through this next phase, we've just got to keep going, score goals at the right time and make sure we keep goals out at the right times to close games out.

"We were hoping on Saturday that we were going to take that next step but absolutely, we rate ourselves against every team we come up against.

"It's about taking some time in training with the break to hone in on some of the things we didn't do as well on the weekend, while looking forward to those games – doing what we need to implement to give ourselves the best chance of winning those matches.

"I wouldn't say it's a hope, I'd say it's a genuine goal that we're looking towards – we need to put in the performances to earn the spot to get back to Europe."

Phase One's result against Wimbledon was one of just two defeats in the open 11 matches for Middleton's men, the 3-0 home reverse their most disappointing display of the season, a sentiment echoed by Read.

The performance also moved away from Holcombe's consistent defensive solidity this season, they had the best defensive record in Phase One and now have the third-best record (15 conceded) behind both Surbiton and Wimbledon, who have conceded 14 each.

"Absolutely, it was a pretty disappointing result for us – to only the scoreline but the way we played throughout that match.

"I think we want to have another crack at them for that reason and show them a proper Holcombe performance.

"We all take pride in our own roles, our own job – if everyone's doing that, then the team is going to succeed at the same time.

"We push ourselves individually to be better each week within our role and helping the others around us."

Since re-joining the club in the summer, Read – who has 49 caps for New Zealand – has also been assistant coach to Nick Bandurak for Holcombe's women, with fellow Kiwi Hayden Phillips.

Holcombe currently sit second behind Surbiton 2s who they face on Sunday afternoon (1:30pm, Holcombe Park) after Saturday's trip to Slough (12:30pm, Upton Court Road).

Surbiton 2s can not be promoted, meaning Holcombe are on course for an immediate return to the Premier Division after two wins in as many matches since the Christmas break.

"I think we've played very well for long periods of the matches but there are still some periods where we know we can be better.

"It's a constant drive to continue to push for that full performance, the girls are absolutely capable of it and I know that they're looking for that so it's just continuing to grow each week.

"I think Slough will come out at us pretty hard but I also think as long we play to our potential and focus on our game, that the result will take care of itself.

“Sunday is one that I know the girls really want to win – looking back to our previous performance against them, we let ourselves down late on after dominating them for long periods.

“Saturday is the first hurdle, we need to get through that and get the points that we want, then Sunday is another game where we want points again.

“Playing at Holcombe Park’s always fun, the crowd’s always good, they’re always enjoying themselves so that’ll be another drive for us to get the points.

“It’s always been our goal throughout the whole season to get back to the Prem and we’re in the right position for that.

“We need to make sure that we keep pushing each week to get the results that we want and need.”

“It’s nice having a game-in-hand but also we just need to focus on one game at a time, focus on us and getting the points – it’s not about what the other teams are doing and what points they’re getting.

“As long as we’re getting our points and wins, that will take care of itself.”

Hannah Carney made her first Division One South appearance since November 25th against Sevenoaks on Saturday, while Bethan Hodges joined the club over the winter break having played in Holcombe’s last two Super 6s campaigns.

Read has been pleased with the impact that those players have made, adding: “They’ve fitted in really well, they’ve been training with us for long periods anyway, staking their claims and pushing the group so it’s been awesome to have those other players come in and have their go, showing us and everyone else what they’re capable of.

“I’m sure them and all the others will keep doing exactly that.” Holcombe could move clear of promotion rivals Barnes with a six-point weekend but still have to face the London side, currently third, at Holcombe Park in March.

“Games like the Barnes one are in the back of the mind but at the same time, we want to focus on how we want to play and how we want to win games.

“I think as long as we keep building that as we go on, that’s what’s going to get us results.

“I think if you start focusing on the other team too much, things can start to be a struggle so definitely focusing on us each week.”

Bandurak and Lottie Bigham were also recent winners at the Hockey Writers’ Club Awards, with Bingham also included in the England under-21 squad alongside goalkeeper Tilly Woodhead.

Read commented: “The awards for Lottie and Nick are really cool and really well-deserved for them, and then Lottie again with Tilly being selected for the under-21s is awesome for them, they’ve been standouts and proven their weight in gold throughout the year for us.

“For them to get that extra recognition is really cool for them and the club.”

Two Holcs included in England under-21 squad

By Lucas Ball

Congratulations to W1s' players Lottie Bingham, 18, and Tilly Woodhead, 17, who have both been selected in the England Women's U21 squad for 2024, alongside former Holcombe player Izzy Shelley.

Former Holcombe captain and coach Leigh Maasdorp is also one of the assistant coaches.

Players went through an assessment process in January after the under-21s, including Bingham, finished fourth at the Junior World Cup in Chile in December.

Bingham was the youngest member of that squad and has since been awarded the Hockey Writers' Club Youth award.

Woodhead was originally confirmed in the under-18s' squad in November, with fellow Holcombe goalkeeper Eddie Rowney also included in the under-18 boys' squad.

The 2024 programme begins at Warwick University from 13th-15th February as a combined England under-21 and under-18 set up, forming part of a new approach which will see greater integration and fluidity between age groups as England Hockey looks to provide the best possible stretch and development opportunities for its most high-potential female players.

The team will travel to Spain at Easter and then to France in May for a rare opportunity to play at the Olympic stadium alongside FIH Pro League matches, all part of the preparation for the EuroHockey Junior Championships in July.

Commenting on the new squad Heather Williams, GB Head of Elite Talent Development, said: "Congratulations to all the players selected and my thanks to their coaches and families who support them day in day out to help them achieve their hockey aspirations.

"It is great to see a mix of experience and new squad members.

"Players like Georgina Gardens and Sofia Martin, both also part of the Great Britain Elite Development Programme have now experienced two Junior World Cups.

"As they look to build on those experiences progress themselves, the opportunity for younger players to train and learn alongside them on and off the pitch is invaluable too so we can develop a continuous pipeline for players."

Historic scoop for Nick Bandurak as Lottie Bingham also wins at Hockey Writers' Club Awards

By Lucas Ball

Congratulations to both Nick Bandurak and Lottie Bingham on their respective successes at the Hockey Writers' Club Awards.

London, United Kingdom – 7th February 2024

In a remarkable testament to his skill and dedication, Nick Bandurak, the luminary of Great Britain and England Hockey, has been honoured with the Player of the Year 2023 award by the Hockey Writers' Club.

This year's recognition is particularly historic as Bandurak becomes the first player to win this prestigious award for three consecutive years.

Beyond this accolade, Bandurak's contributions to both the Great Britain and England hockey teams have been nothing short of extraordinary. He has amassed an impressive total of 57 caps and scored a staggering 43 goals. His phenomenal performance has been a cornerstone in the teams' successes, significantly contributing to their qualification for the upcoming Paris Olympics this summer.

Bandurak's journey in international hockey has been marked by consistent excellence and an unwavering commitment to the sport. His ability to perform under pressure and deliver results has made him an invaluable asset to his teams. His goal-scoring prowess and tactical acumen on the field have not only won him individual accolades but have also propelled his teams to new heights on the international stage.

He now joins Jane Sixsmith, Barry Middleton, his coach at Holcombe, Kate Richardson-Walsh and Maddie Hinch as a three-time winner.

Speaking about the award Bandurak said, “It’s such a huge honour to win the Hockey Writers’ Club UK Men’s Player of the Year Award for 2023. To have my name alongside such a prestigious group through the history of British Hockey is humbling and something I will never take for granted.

“I’ve been lucky enough to join the program at a really exciting time for Men’s hockey in the UK and I’m looking forward to seeing the levels to which this Great Britain squad can take it in the coming year and beyond.” he continued.

Currently playing for Holcombe in Kent, Bandurak’s leadership and skill continue to inspire both his club and country. The Hockey Writers’ Club, in recognising Bandurak’s outstanding contribution for the third year running, highlights the significant impact he has had on hockey in Great Britain and the world.

As Bandurak gears up for the Paris Olympics, his legacy as one of the sports deadliest finishers continues to grow. His remarkable achievements are a source of inspiration for aspiring athletes and a matter of pride for British and English hockey.

Bingham also won the Hockey Writers’ Club Youth Award, awarded annually to the male and female, under 18 & 16, for an outstanding contribution to hockey within their club and school environment, voted by the HWC Committee from nominations by clubs and schools.

She was the youngest member of England’s under-21s squad that secured a fourth-placed finish at the Junior World Cup in Chile in December and also formed a key part of our women’s indoor team that won promotion to the Super 6s Premier Division in January.

Bingham has scored four Division One South goals for Holcombe since joining from Knole Park in the summer and will hope to add to her tally in the coming weeks as Bandurak’s side look for an immediate return to the Premier Division.

She began her hockey career at St Michael’s Prep School and Sevenoaks HC where she was part of the team who won the U12 national title. She was captain of the Weald Grammar School team who were crowned U13 national school champions in 2019.

She then moved to HC Knole Park and her performances over four seasons helped the club win U16 indoor and outdoor national titles and become U18 indoor national champions last season.

Bingham played for the U16s for two seasons and was part of the U18 squad which came fourth in the U18 European Championships in Dusseldorf last summer.

England Hockey coaches said: “Lottie contributes more to hockey than just her performances on field, a state school player, she inspires the future with her mentoring of younger athletes within her club environment.

“Lottie is a great role model showing what perseverance and hard work can achieve.”

Alex South (Hawks) – played very well.

Harrison Andrews (Hawks) – strong display.

Emily Hull (U10s) – scored a hat-trick at our U10s’ triangular at Knole Park.

Jamie Pepper (M4s) – scored a brace in a 7-0 win.

Clara Newlyn (U10s) – scored five goals at our U10s’ Knole Park triangular, including a hat-trick.

Umpires:

Jason Davies & Harry Jarvis – umpires of the week difficult, as there was only one home match played. I’m going to give it to Jason Davies and Harry Jarvis, who take pool appointments so represent Holcombe throughout Kent and beyond and both umpired the W1s’ friendly against the M3s on Wednesday.
