WELCOME

Welcome back to Holcombe Park after England Hockey's Women's Division 1 South's winter break.

Holcombe extend a very warm welcome to the visiting teams over the weekend, Surbiton 2s and Southgate, along with their travelling spectators. We also welcome our officials - umpires: Elysee Enness-Laporte & Rob Jenkins (Saturday) and Ann Hopkins & Nikki Butcher (Sunday) as well as match official Matt White (both).

As our women transfer from the warmth of a successful indoor season, gaining promotion from the Super 6s Division One to the Premier Division, we look forward to this double-header weekend which kick starts the second half of the outdoor season.

Holcombe sit in third place on 19 points, and will be looking to take crucial points from Surbiton who lead the league, undefeated on 27 points.

Going into the weekend, Southgate are in 7th place with 9 points and will certainly be looking to challenge Holcombe to the points on offer on Sunday.

Enjoy your hockey this weekend everyone, and good luck to all those who are playing.

MATCH PREVIEW - W1s VS. SURBITON

2s

By Lucas Ball

Holcombe begin the second half of their Division One South campaign with a home clash against league leaders Surbiton 2s on Saturday afternoon (2pm).

The Londoners ran out 2-1 victors at Sugden Road thanks to a late turnaround in September after Emma Bandurak had given Holcs the lead.

Will Fulker's side have won all 10 of their league matches but are unable to win promotion, and have also qualified for the semi-finals of the England Hockey Tier One Cup alongside Holcombe.

New signing Bethan Hodges could make her outdoor Holcombe debut having played in the last two Super 6s campaigns as Holcombe look for back-to-back Division One South wins, their final game before the Christmas break a 5-1 win away to relegation-threatened Wimbledon 2s.

Holcombe are also boosted by gaining promotion in their Super 6s Division One campaign, hoping to bring that momentum to their outdoor season as Nick Bandurak's side look for an immediate return to the Premier Division.

Bandurak's side are the top-scorers in the league with 33 in nine games (compared to Surbiton's 32 in 10), though the visitors have the best defensive record with just 10 conceded compared to Holcs' 16.

Entry at Holcombe Park is free on Saturday. Updates will be posted across our social media channels.

MATCH PREVIEW - W1s VS. SOUTHGATE

By Lucas Ball

Holcombe face Southgate on Sunday afternoon (2pm) in the second match of their double-header weekend as their Division One South campaign gets underway.

Bethan Hodges could face her former club after signing for Holcombe from Southgate over the winter break, while former Holcs Lorna Cruickshank and Charlotte Childs could be in action for Andy Richardson's side.

The two sides last met on the opening day of the season with Holcs running out 2-1 winners at the Southgate Hockey Centre courtesy of goals from Emma Bandurak and Phoebe Steele.

Holcombe sit third heading into the weekend, with Southgate currently seventh, having moved out of the relegation zone with a 4-0 win over Canterbury last weekend.

Nick Bandurak's side have scored more than double the amount of goals compared to Southgate, with 33 compared to just 14, though the London side have conceded just one more than Holcombe, with 17 compared to Holcombe's 16, Southgate therefore boasting a better defensive record than second-placed Barnes, who have conceded 18 in their 10 matches.

A win for Holcombe would earmark their promotion credentials once more with just seven games left to play after Sunday's clash as they aim for an immediate return to the Premier Division after winning Super 6s promotion over the winter break.

Entry at Holcombe Park is free on Sunday. The match will be streamed on Veo Live and updates posted on our social media channels.

MATCH REPORT: W1s 4-3 WIMBLEDON

By Lucas Ball

Holcombe reached the semi-finals of the England Hockey Tier One Cup by beating Wimbledon 2s 4-3 at Holcombe Park on Sunday afternoon courtesy of goals from Jade van der Zwan (2), Emma Bandurak and Hattie Jones.

The two sides met last weekend in the Vitality Division One South and were due to face Southgate and Barnes respectively on Saturday but both games were postponed due to the weather.

Second-placed Holcombe won the previous match 5-1 at Raynes Park High School, this encounter much closer than the league game.

Hannah Bond came closest to opening the scoring for the hosts, driving in from the left after good work from van der Zwan, forcing a save from Katherine Don-Wauchope.

Phoebe Barnett gave the visitors a first-quarter lead with just over a minute to play in a low-key opening period.

Holcombe started the second quarter quickly, van der Zwan playing a dangerous ball across goal which evaded everyone before Tilly Tillings – looking for her first Holcombe goal – was twice denied by Don-Wauchope.

Wimbledon also came close on the counter, deflecting just wide around five minutes into the second period.

Two minutes later, Holcombe were level as van der Zwan expertly deflected captain Harriet Pittard's slap home.

Soon after, Nick Bandurak's side – coached by Rob Brunt with Bandurak away on international duty – won another penalty corner, this one stopped illegally on the line by a defender.

Emma Bandurak made no mistake from the spot as Holcombe completed a quick-fire turnaround.

Catherine Ledesma almost extended Holcombe's lead but her reverse effort was deflected over the bar by a defender after a mazy run into the circle before Phoebe Steele twice came close from two penalty corners just before half-time.

The first of those hit the post before a re-award was stopped on the line, though the whistle was blown for a lifted shot on the second.

Catherine Ledesma once again came close before Marian Ledesma had a goal disallowed at the start of the second half before Tilly Woodhead was forced into action at the other end, stopping a reverse before Becky Manton fired a loopy reverse into the top corner to level the tie.

van der Zwan hit a reverse just wide as Holcombe looked to quickly re-establish their lead with 40 minutes on the clock.

It was another penalty corner that led to Brunt's side re-taking the lead, an initial effort deflected across goal for injector Jones to tap in at the back post.

The hosts almost doubled their advantage less than five minutes later when Bond saw a hit deflected before Charlotte Daly was denied by Don-Wauchope.

Manton hit another reverse effort off-target close to the end of the quarter as Holcombe headed into the final period a goal to the good. Woodhead made a great save to deny the visitors an equaliser early in the fourth quarter.

With nine minutes remaining, van der Zwan had her second. The Australian broke into the circle and looked to square the ball across goal, the ball deflecting off a defender's stick and into the goal.

Holcombe were twice denied as they looked for a fifth before Wimbledon started to push further forward with five minutes to go.

Woodhead made another good save before the visitors controversially halved the deficit with three minutes remaining. The England under-18 goalkeeper appeared to be obstructed before Emily Barker was able to squeeze the ball in.

Wimbledon squandered a penalty corner just a minute later as the ball hit their own player's foot in the circle, meaning Holcombe were able to hold on to reach the last-four.

BETHAN HODGES 'EXCITED' TO GET GOING WITH HOLCS

Bethan Hodges is hopeful of a strong second half of the season with Holcombe to make it a double-promotion for Nick Bandurak's side, with indoor promotion already secured under Richard Lane.

Hodges is a new signing from Southgate but has played in Holcombe's last two Super 6s campaigns, with Lane's side finishing as champions in 2024 after Beeston were punished for fielding an ineligible player.

Sister of Holcombe's Robyn Hodges, Bethan is set to make her debut in this weekend's double-header as Bandurak's side prepare to restart their Division One South campaign against league leaders Surbiton 2s and Southgate.

Holcs sit third in the table currently, though have a game-in-hand on the top-two and are just three points behind second-placed Barnes with a superior goal difference. Second place could be enough for promotion with Surbiton 2s unable to be promoted.

Hodges said: "I'm super excited to get started with a new team, just from these last few training sessions I'm learning so much about the way we play.

"It's very technical and tactical and it's really exciting for me as a player. I'm just looking forward to the second half of the season, hopefully we can have some success.

"When you're joining a new club, potentially making your debut in a hard game - I think - is probably the best way to get thrown straight into it.

"I think we have a real good chance of coming out on top in this league so we have to prove ourselves to the top contenders - that's what we need to do.

"I think I'm probably more nervous for the Southgate game being my former club than the Surbiton one but I'm still really excited, I know they've been training super hard for this.

"It was a close contest in the first game of the season so I'm sure they'll be raring to go, just like us on the other side of it.

"That exposure to knowing the girls from last season and then coming in this season, I'm not thrown straight into the deep end, I know a bit about how people want to play, the standards, where we're at and the intensity we want to play with so it's definitely helped me settle in at a new club.

"I think after a massive second weekend, we deserved what we got with the promotion and being back in the Premier Division is exactly where we want to be and what we were striving for.

"That's the plan [when asked about promotion hopes]! I think it's great to see the club have some success in indoor hockey and it's also helped us build momentum for the second half of the season, it's great - we definitely have a chance of getting straight back up."

Hodges was excited to join the club for numerous reasons, none less than the chance to work with players like Bandurak and Hayden Phillips as coaches, both of whom recently helped their countries qualify for Paris 2024 - Great Britain's matches shown on the BBC's digital channels.

“It’s exciting to come in as a forward and have people like Nick Bandurak and Hayden Phillips as coaches to help us develop and watch us play.

“You want to have that in your coaches, it’s super exciting and there’s so much to learn from them.”

“There’s always a big push to keep promoting the hockey - the fact that the BBC have got more involved in it recently is such a big thing for the sport.

“As clubs, we can support that on social media and then equally it’s super exciting for us to be part of a changing movement and growth in hockey as a whole.”

Both of Holcombe's matches this weekend start at 2pm - entry is free for both at Holcombe Park and updates will be provided across the club's social media channels.

Rob Field wins International Player of the Year Award (sponsored by QTV) at Scottish Hockey Awards

By Lucas Ball

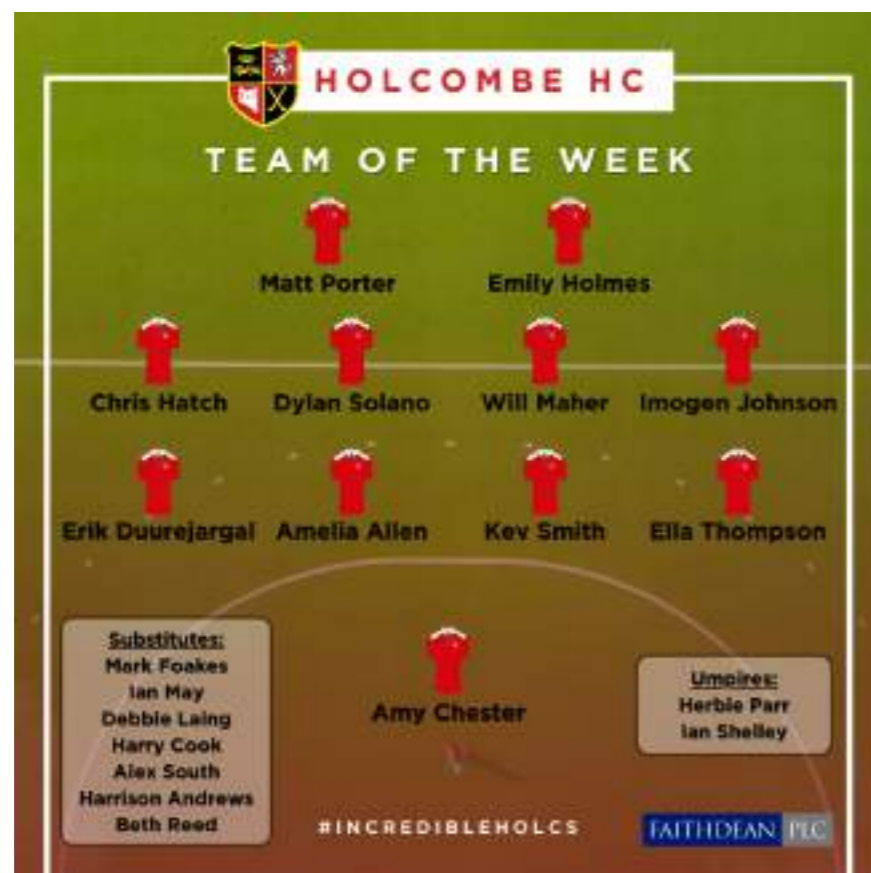

Congratulations to M1s' vice-captain Rob Field who has won the International Player of the Year award (sponsored by QTV) at the Scottish Hockey Awards having been nominated alongside Lee Morton and Andrew McConnell.

Field has scored two goals so far this season with our M1s sat third in the Premier Division table at the end of Phase One.

The ceremony took place at the Village Hotel in Glasgow on Thursday night, and was hosted by award winning stand-up comedian Susie McCabe.

The 29-year-old has 26 caps for his country and has scored one goal. With Holcombe's next action coming in Phase Two of the Premier Division, Field will be hoping to help guide Barry Middleton's side to a strong second half of the season after nine wins in 11 matches in Phase One.

W1s promoted to Super 6s Premier Division as champions
By Lucas Ball

Holcombe have been promoted as champions from the Super 6s Division One to the Premier Division following England Hockey's decision to penalise Beeston for their inadvertent fielding of an ineligible player in their fixtures on the Saturday, 6th & Sunday, 7th January.

The matches in which the ineligible player played have been recorded as a 5-0 loss for Beeston instead of the results on the day, and points adjusted accordingly. No additional penalty will be applied.

This decision may be subject to an appeal.

Richard Lane's side lost 5-3 to Beeston on the first weekend of Super 6s action so, as a result, have gained three points and seen their goal difference improve by seven, while Sutton Coldfield and Knole Park have both gained two points and seen their own respective goal differences improve by five after drawing with James Sordillo's team.

Holcombe sat second bottom after the first weekend of action having also lost 2-1 to Knole Park and drawn 0-0 with Reading, surging up the table to fourth with four wins out of four at Polo Farm, Canterbury, on weekend two.

Lane's team beat Wimbledon and Sevenoaks on Saturday, 13th January, both by a score of four goals to two before wins against then table-toppers Sutton Coldfield (4-3) and hosts Canterbury (7-1) on Sunday, 14th January.

Reading initially finished in second place but have been leapfrogged by both Holcombe and Sutton Coldfield, meaning the latter two sides have been promoted to the Super 6s Premier Division while Reading are set to remain in Division One.

There has been no change at the bottom of the table, with Canterbury relegated to Division Two while Beeston drop from first to sixth. Holcombe and Sutton Coldfield will face Buckingham, Slough, East Grinstead, Surbiton, Guildford, Harleston Magpies and Repton in the Premier Division next season, with Bowdon Highton and Leicester City both relegated to Division One.

It means a return to Premier Division action in 2025 for Holcombe for the first time since 2022, when they were relegated alongside Wimbledon.

It will also be the first time that both Holcombe's men and women's side have been in the Super 6s Premier Division since the same year, with Barry Middleton's side securing a sixth-placed finish that year ahead of securing survival on the final day of the 2024 Premier Division with a win against Surbiton.

Coach Lane commented: "I'm absolutely delighted that we have ended the indoor season as champions of Division One.

"The girls thoroughly deserved it, putting an outstanding second weekend of performances in.

"They grew with each game and played exceptionally.

"It is a pleasure to be a part of the group this talented group."

Captain Harriet Pittard added: "It's super exciting to get the promotion – it really is putting us, as a group, in the direction we set out for this year!

"The indoor group have worked really hard, with the first weekend being a real learning curve for us and then on the second weekend, we really took off as a group and made such huge progress!

"It means exciting times ahead for next year's Premier Division Super 6s and we can't wait!

"I'm very proud of the group and we couldn't have done it without Laney, Kerry and Remy – great team effort all round!"

Manager Kerry Hodges said: "Wow, what a tournament!

"It was an absolute honour to manage and be part of the most amazing group of players!

"The final result is testament to their ability to adapt and never give up."

Both teams return to competitive outdoor action in the coming weeks with Holcombe's women facing a home Division One South doubleheader with fixtures against Surbiton 2s and then Southgate at Holcombe Park on Saturday, 3rd and Sunday, 4th February (both 2pm) before Holcombe's men get Phase 2 of their Premier Division campaign underway at St. George's College against leaders Old Georgians on Saturday, 10th February (6pm).

Holcombe confirm Bethan Hodges signing
By Lucas Ball

Holcombe Hockey Club are delighted to confirm the signing of Bethan Hodges from Southgate as our Women's first-team prepare to return to outdoor action.

Hodges, sister of Holcs defender Robyn, has also played for Holcombe in the Super 6s Division One in each of the last two seasons and will now be available for outdoor selection. She has made four appearances for Southgate in Division One South so far this campaign, with the London side sitting in ninth-place, a point away from safety.

Hodges could face her old club in her first weekend of competitive outdoor action for Holcombe, with Nick Bandurak's side facing table-toppers Surbiton 2s on Saturday, 3rd February before Southgate visit Holcombe Park the following day (both 2pm).

Holcs currently sit third, three points behind Barnes in second, with Surbiton 2s unable to be promoted if they finish top.

Holcombe will have a game-in-hand on Barnes by the time they face Surbiton, with Barnes set to face William Fulker's side next Wednesday. On joining the club, Hodges said: "I'm super excited to get started at Holcombe.

"This is a great opportunity to join an ambitious team with fantastic coaching staff to help me develop as a player and be part of their successes!"

Coach Bandurak added: "I'm really looking forward to having Bethan on board with the Women's 1s for the second half of the season.

"Bethan joined us for our Super 6s campaign and has settled with the group straight away.

"I'm thrilled she's chosen to join at this stage and look forward to working with her."

Five Holcombe men help teams book Paris 2024 tickets
By Lucas Ball

Congratulations to Ollie Payne, David Ames, Phil Roper, Nick Bandurak (all Great Britain) and Hayden Phillips (New Zealand) as both teams qualified for Paris 2024 at the FIH Olympic Qualifier in Muscat, Oman alongside world champions Germany.

Great Britain won all three of their pool games with all four Holcombe players involved in each match as GB comfortably progressed to the last-four by beating Pakistan 6-1, Malaysia 4-1 and China 6-0.

Bandurak was on the scoresheet against Pakistan in the opening match alongside former Holc Sam Ward (2), Jack Waller, Will Calnan and Zach Wallace.

Another Ward brace followed in game two with Wallace and Calnan netting again before Holcs man Roper netted in the final pool game against China as Ward added a third brace in as many matches.

Wallace also netted twice and Calnan added his third of the tournament to complete the rout as Paul Revington's side topped Pool A.

Pakistan finished second after beating China 2-0 before finishing their pool stage with a 3-3 draw against Malaysia.

New Zealand won two out of their three matches in Pool B, meanwhile, to finish behind world champions Germany on goal difference.

Phillips started all three matches – Greg Nicol's side started with a 3-1 win over Chile, captained by ex-Holcombe player Jose Maldonado, before drawing 2-2 against Germany, Phillips scoring the equaliser.

That left New Zealand needing a 10-goal win to finish top of the group against Canada, but they won 4-0 to finish second and set-up a semi-final meeting with Great Britain – Phillips then facing his fellow Holcombe women's coach and teammate Bandurak and other teammates Payne, Ames and Roper.

Roper, Ames, Payne and Phillips all started that semi-final clash, the winner guaranteed a spot at Paris 2024. Roper and then Ward scored two in two minutes in Q2 as Revington's side took control of the tie, before Kane Russell halved the deficit.

Ward added his eighth goal in just four matches late in the third period as GB booked their ticket to Paris, setting up a clash with Germany for the gold medal.

Phillips and New Zealand, though, had to recover quickly to take on Pakistan just a day later with qualification still on the line – the Black Sticks last failed to qualify in 2000.

Pakistan had been beaten 4-0 by a ruthless Germany to leave them playing for bronze and looking to reach a first Olympic Games since London 2012.

Abu Mahmood scored a penalty corner and a penalty stroke either side of a Scott Boyde goal in Q2 to give Sheikh Shahnaz's side the lead which they held until there were just eight minutes left on the clock.

Hugo Inglis netted an equaliser to give the Black Sticks renewed hope of qualification before Boyde added his second with just two minutes left to break Pakistan hearts and send Phillips and New Zealand to the Olympics.

With the other men's qualifiers in Valencia also concluded, the 12 qualifiers for Paris are: Netherlands, Germany, Great Britain, Spain, France, South African, Belgium, India, Australia, Argentina, New Zealand and Ireland.

Great Britain's women – featuring four former Holcombe players in Laura Roper (formerly Unsworth), Miriam Pritchard, Sarah Robertson and Sarah Jones – also secured qualification in Valencia, Spain over the weekend.

David Ralph's side finished second in Pool B behind hosts Spain, beating Canada – coached by former GB duo Danny Kerry and Kate Richardson-Walsh – 2-0 and Malaysia 8-1 to set up a last-four clash with Belgium.

Belgium controversially ran out 3-2 winners with one of their goals hitting the body of a Belgian player before going in, though GB were unable to review the decision as it had already been replayed on the big screen.

That left Ralph's side needing to beat Ireland in the bronze medal match after Spain beat Sean Dancer's side 3-0 in a shootout in their semi-final after a 0-0 draw.

Jones scored the opening goal early in the second quarter before Katie Robertson's first for Great Britain doubled the advantage early in the final period.

Hannah McLoughlin pulled one back for Ireland from an overtime penalty corner to halve the deficit but GB were able to book their ticket to the Games.

The International Hockey Federation (FIH), though, have apologised to Ireland after Ralph's side fielded 12 players at one stage during their 2-1 victory.

A statement to The Hockey Paper read: "We are aware that for 50 seconds within the final two minutes in the third quarter of the FIH Hockey Women's Olympic Qualifier match between Great Britain and Ireland held in Valencia on Saturday, Great Britain had 12 players on the field of play.

"This followed a multiple player substitution and was unfortunately not noticed by either team or the Technical Officials.

"The FIH expresses its apologies for this incident and a review is being conducted on the circumstances leading to the incident. According to the Tournament Regulations, such a machine incident cannot be protested or appealed."

Women's qualifiers: Netherlands, Belgium, Germany, Japan, China,

France, Australia, Argentina, Great Britain, Spain, USA and South Africa

Pools for the Games have also been confirmed.

Men's Pool A: Netherlands, Germany, Great Britain, Spain, France and South Africa

Men's Pool B: Belgium, India, Australia, Argentina, New Zealand and Ireland

Women's Pool A: Netherlands, Belgium, Germany, Japan, China and France

Women's Pool B: Australia, Argentina, Great Britain, Spain, USA and South Africa

Super 6s Weekend Two round-up
By Lucas Ball

Holcombe enjoyed a much more successful second weekend of Super 6s action as both the men's and women's side completed their Premier Division and Division One campaigns respectively.

With just a combined four points from seven matches on weekend one, Holcombe won five of their eight weekend two matches, drawing one and losing two by the odd goal.

Richard Lane guided his side to four straight wins at Polo Farm, Canterbury as Holcombe secured a fourth-place finish in the Women's Division One, just a point behind the top-two promotion spots.

Holcs started the weekend with a 4-2 win over Kent rivals Sevenoaks, who took a first-quarter lead through Carys Isherwood.

Lottie Bingham got Holcombe back level before half-time and put them in front midway through the third period before Lane's side were pegged back by a goal from Sevenoaks captain Maddie Thompson to head into the final quarter at 2-2 but another Bingham goal to complete her hat-trick on her first competitive indoor appearance for Holcombe as well as one for Catherine Ledesma gave Holcombe the three points.

It was another win by the same scoreline in Holcs' second Saturday match against Wimbledon, with the match playing out in a similar fashion.

Hannah Bond gave Holcombe the lead early on before Lily Gandhi levelled for the Londoners with Bingham once again on target to give Holcs a half-time lead.

Becky Manton equalised in Q3 to make it 2-2 before two more fourth-quarter goals from Holcombe secured another three points – this time coming from Madi Ratcliffe and Bingham once more.

Holcombe's men kicked off their second weekend of Premier Division with a 1-1 draw against Sam Taylor's former club Ashmoor, a crucial match in the relegation scrap.

Cullen Turner gave Ashmoor the lead before half-time before Tom Russell equalised in the third quarter for Holcombe, Barry Middleton's side then failing to convert a flurry of late chances.

Middleton's men then faced table-toppers Old Georgians and twice took the lead through Alex Pendle but were pegged back by two Carson brothers – first James and then Tom.

Colin Huet's side then went two goals ahead courtesy of strikes from former Great Britain international Chris Griffiths and Tom Carson in Q4, with Holcombe unable to find an equaliser after Taylor gave them hope with just over a minute to play.

Lane's side scored four goals for the third consecutive match as they kicked off Sunday with an impressive 4-3 win over then-table-toppers Sutton Coldfield.

Robyn Hodges gave Holcs a fifth-minute lead but they were quickly pegged back by Emma McCabe before Beth Peers put Sutton Coldfield ahead in the second quarter.

Hodges added her second at the end of the third period to leave the scores level before a late flurry of goals – Emma Bandurak and Bethan Hodges added two goals for Holcombe in less than 60 seconds which initially appeared to have secured the three points before Peers' second with less than a minute remaining made it a nervy finish in Canterbury.

Holcombe followed that win up with an emphatic 7-1 drubbing of Canterbury – which also relegated the hosts to Division Two for next season and meant that Holcombe have beaten their fellow Kent side by the same scoreline in both indoor and outdoor action this season.

The first half, in particular, was tightly-contested – Bond gave Lane’s team the lead early on before Canterbury levelled through Iona Lester.

Bingham restored Holcombe’s advantage inside the first minute of the third quarter before Canterbury squandered a brilliant opportunity to equalise when Tilly Woodhead saved a penalty stroke which, had it gone in, would have made the scores level once more with around 15 minutes to play.

Instead, Holcombe went into the final break a goal ahead and then added five goals in Q4 – firstly Robyn Hodges’ goal looked to have put the game beyond Canterbury before Bingham made it a brace three minutes later.

Hodges added two more to complete a 10-minute hat-trick with Ledesma netting her second of the weekend on the buzzer for Holcombe’s seventh, the final two goals both coming within the last minute.

Holcombe finished with the best defensive record in Division One, conceding just 15 goals in their seven matches.

For Holcombe’s men, Sunday’s first match was crucial. Ashmoor had finished their Premier Division campaign before Holcombe’s first match against Surbiton, so Middleton’s men went into that clash knowing a win would secure Premier Division survival for 2025.

At the end of the first two periods, it did look as though Holcombe’s survival hopes may be in some jeopardy. Two goals in two minutes from Luke Taylor and Rob Farrington gave Surbiton a 2-0 lead at the end of Q1 before Middleton’s side got themselves level with a minute to go in the second period through goals from Seb Ansley and Middleton.

Stuart Rushmere re-established the lead for Mark Pearn’s side before half-time before Holcombe begun a spirited comeback.

Russell and Jake Owen both struck for Holcombe to give them the lead heading into the final period before a 40th-minute goal from Taylor looked to have secured survival but it was once more a nervy finish as Taylor also struck in the final minute for the London side.

Holcombe headed into their final match with survival secured and no hopes of qualifying for Finals Day, while their opponents East Grinstead had just seen their Finals Day hopes all-but ended by Hampstead & Westminster scoring a last-minute equaliser against Sevenoaks, leaving the Sussex side needing to win by 19 goals to overtake the Londoners.

Isaac Farrant gave Wesley Jackson’s team a first-quarter lead, one which they never relinquished in the match. Ross Stott doubled the advantage early in Q2 before Taylor – whose goal put him joint-ninth in the scoring standings – pulled one back for Middleton’s side.

Farrant restored East Grinstead’s two-goal lead after 27 minutes with Russell putting Holcombe back within one at the end of the third quarter.

There were no further goals in the fourth quarter, however, consigning Holcombe to a fifth defeat in eight matches as EG secured a fifth-place finish.

Old Georgians, Sevenoaks, Wimbledon and Hampstead & Westminster all secured spots at Finals Day which will be held later this month at the Derby Arena, while Ashmoor and Surbiton have been relegated to Division One for 2025.

Super 6s Weekend One round-up

By Lucas Ball

Holcombe endured a painful weekend of Super 6s action as their first-teams kicked off their Premier Division and Division One campaigns respectively.

Across a combined seven games, Holcombe took just four points – leaving them second-bottom in both leagues heading into the second weekend of action.

Barry Middleton's men kicked off their Premier Division campaign with a late comeback victory over Hampstead & Westminster as three final-quarter goals secured a 5-4 win in the curtain-raiser on Saturday.

Hampstead took a first-quarter lead through George Carson before Sam Taylor netted a leveller before half-time. The Londoners re-established their lead early on in the second half through Nick Steffens but were once again pegged back, this time by Alex Pendle.

Two more Hampstead goals followed in the third period from Steffens and Joe Hillyer to give them a commanding lead heading into the last quarter but goals from Tom O'Keeffe and then Tom Russell levelled the scores before Taylor scored a winner in the final minute.

Holcombe's second Saturday match, however, was not so close as Wimbledon ran out 9-3 winners.

Two goals in as many minutes saw the teams go in level at the first break as Benjamin Francis put Wimbledon ahead before Taylor equalised for Holcs but Wimbledon scored four times in the second quarter to take the game away from Holcombe.

Francis netted two more of those to complete his hat-trick with goals also coming from Ed Horler and Lewis Wilcher.

Seb Ansley scored Holcombe's second less than a minute into Q3 but Wimbledon extended their lead again before the final period as Rory Patterson and Rhys Bradshaw netted.

Jack Turner and Francis made it 9-2 by the 33rd minute before Taylor scored his fourth goal in two matches to reduce the deficit.

Holcombe's women, meanwhile, coached by former men's captain Richard Lane – suffered two defeats on Saturday, losing 5-3 to Beeston and 2-1 to Knole Park.

The Beeston match sprang into life after half-time, with all eight goals coming in the final two quarters.

Beeston took the lead in a busy third-quarter through Ella Cusack before two Catherine Ledesma goals turned the game on its head. Beatrice Bell levelled things up for James Sordillo's side before Ledesma completed a seven-minute hat-trick at the end of the third period.

Beeston netted three unanswered goals in the final period, though, to take the three points through Lauren Burrell, Cusack and then Cerys Miller in the final minute.

Knole Park took the lead inside the first quarter of play through Boadicea Cannon with Alessia Turner doubling their advantage midway through the second period.

Bethan Hodges scored a consolation with two minutes remaining to halve the deficit but Holcombe could not complete the comeback. Sunday started with the same scoreline as Saturday's first match for Holcombe's men, though this time they were beaten 5-4 by Sevenoaks.

Taylor and Femi Owolade-Coombes had given Middleton's side a two-goal lead inside the first five minutes but Sevenoaks were level by the end of Q2 courtesy of goals from Ben Allberry and Joe Naughtaly.

Allberry gave Martin Schouten's side the lead inside three minutes of the second half before Russell levelled things up inside 60 seconds of the final quarter.

Sevenoaks once again took the lead through James Beck before Owolade-Coombes looked to have secured a point for Holcombe but Naughtaly was on hand in the final minute to snatch the three points.

Team Bath Buccaneers then ran out comfortable winners in Holcombe's final match of the weekend, beating the Kent side 5-0.

Two goals from Jacob Edwards and a goal apiece for Ben Stone and Graham Davies gave Bath a 4-0 lead at half-time, with Sean Irwin adding the fifth in the third quarter.

Holcombe's women enjoyed a more successful Sunday, drawing 0-0 against table-toppers Reading.

An incredibly rare result in indoor, Holcombe dominated for large periods of the match but were unable to apply the finishing touch to take their first three points of the campaign.

Former Holc Maddie Hinch awarded OBE
By Lucas Ball

Congratulations to former Holcombe goalkeeper Maddie Hinch who has been made an Officer of the Order of the British Empire (OBE) in the New Year Honours.

Hinch, a three-time FIH Goalkeeper of the Year, retired from international hockey in March having earned 118 caps for England and Great Britain.

She played for Holcombe from 2013-16 before going on to play in the Dutch Hoofdklasse after saving all four shootout efforts against the Netherlands as Great Britain won a gold medal at the Rio Olympics in 2016.

Hinch was also part of the GB side that won bronze at Tokyo 2020 as well as the England teams that won gold at the 2015 EuroHockey Championships, bronze at the 2014 and 2018 Commonwealth games and gold at the 2022 Commonwealth Games in Birmingham.

She was awarded an MBE for services to hockey in 2017 and is now assistant coach with the University of Connecticut following retirement.

Club President David South MBE commented: "Congratulations to Maddie on being awarded an OBE in the New Year Honours List.

"She has made a phenomenal impact on hockey in this country and we are proud as a club to see a former player continue to succeed.

"We wish her all the best in her ongoing coaching role in the United States."

Fourth-placed Junior World Cup finish for England and Lottie Bingham
By Lucas Ball

England under-21s, including Holcombe player Lottie Bingham were defeated 7-0 by Belgium in their final match off the Junior World Cup to seal a fourth-placed finish at the tournament in Chile.

Bingham started two of England's matches and was involved in a further four as Simon Letchford's side progressed through Pool D by finishing top of the group to reach the last-eight ahead of knockout clashes against Germany and then eventual champions the Netherlands.

England kicked off with a 5-0 win over New Zealand as Bingham scored her side's first goal of the tournament before beating the USA 5-2.

A 4-1 defeat to Japan followed – with Bingham scoring England's only goal – in their final Pool D fixture but England still finished top to set up a tie with Germany for a spot in the last-four.

Scarlett Spavin scored the only goal of the game as Letchford's side defeated Germany, and she was on the scoresheet once again in the semi-final as England lost 8-1 to the Netherlands.

They finished off their campaign with a 7-0 defeat against Belgium to finish fourth at the tournament.

Mixed fortunes for Great Britain and Holcombe trio to kick off new FIH Pro League season
By Lucas Ball

Great Britain – featuring Holcombe trio Ollie Payne, Phil Roper and Nick Bandurak – took four points from their opening four FIH Pro League 2023/24 (Season 5) matches to leave Paul Revington's side sitting third in the table.

Roper started all four matches in Argentina as Great Britain, the Netherlands and their hosts kicked off the new season of the FIH's hallmark tournament, while Payne started three matches and Bandurak was involved in three – starting twice.

GB began their trip with a 2-1 defeat against their hosts, former Holcombe man Sam Ward scoring a consolation with 10 minutes to play after Agustin Mazzilli and Tomas Domene had given Mariano Ronconi's team a two-goal lead.

Revington's men earned their first win in their second fixture against the Netherlands, as Surbiton forward Struan Walker scored either side of a Bandurak goal as GB ran out 3-2 winners, the Dutch goals coming courtesy of Jorrit Croon and Jip Janssen.

Roper was the only Holcombe man involved in the third match as GB played out a 1-1 draw with the hosts, Jacob Draper scoring for Revington's side before Lucas Martinez levelled things up. Argentina took the bonus point by winning the shootout 4-1.

Terrance Pieters and Joep Troost scored either side of Ward in GB's final match as the Netherlands defeated Revington's team 2-1.

Bandurak earned his 50th combined international cap on the trip, while Roper also reached 200 combined caps for GB and England – congratulations to both!

GB were captained by James Albery in the absence of Holcombe coach David Ames.

Four former Holcombe players were involved for Great Britain's women as they picked up just a single point from their four fixtures against the same opposition.

Laura Roper (formerly Unsworth), Sarah Robertson, Charlotte Watson and Miriam Pritchard all played for David Ralph's side as they drew 0-0 with Argentina in their first game before losing the shootout, ahead of a 2-1 loss to the hosts, sandwiched by 8-0 and 5-1 defeats against the Netherlands.

Roper now has 339 caps and sits third on the all-time list for England and Great Britain.

Femi Owolade-Coombes wins Super 6s Under-18 Boys' Schools' Finals 2023/24 with Whitgift
By Lucas Ball

Femi Owolade-Coombes was involved for Whitgift School as they won the Super 6s Under-18 Boys' Schools' Finals 2023/24.

Owolade-Coombes, who has made two first-team appearances this season, played in all five of Whitgift's matches, scoring five goals in the process.

Whitgift beat Caterham School (3-1) and Altrincham Grammar (6-0) in Pool A, and drew 1-1 with Repton to set-up a semi-final clash with Ipswich School, which Karl Stagno's side won 3-2.

Semi-final victory against the East Anglian school set up another tie against Repton, Whitgift this time running out 3-1 winners courtesy of goals from Louis Jordan, Jake Bennett and Owolade-Coombes.

M1s' Premier Division Phase Two fixtures confirmed

By Lucas Ball

Our M1s' fixtures for Phase Two of the Premier Division season have been announced.

Phase One sees each team face the 11 other Premier Division sides once before the league splits into a top-six and bottom-six for Phase Two.

Top-six sides face each other once more and bottom-six sides the same in Phase Two before another split. The team that is top at the end of Phase Two qualifies for Europe via England's second Euro Hockey League (EHL) spot.

The top-six and top-two of the bottom-six are then split into two pools of four (first, fourth, fifth and eighth & second, third, sixth and seventh) where they play three more matches each. The top-two from each pool then qualify for Finals Weekend

First from Pool A takes on second from Pool B and vice-versa in the semi-finals, with the two winners meeting in the Premier Division Final to determine who takes England's top-ranked EHL spot for the following season.

Phase Three for the bottom-four sides sees them carry over their points from Phases One and Two and play three more matches, with the bottom-two after these fixtures relegated to Division One.

Top-six: Old Georgians, Surbiton, Holcombe, Wimbledon, Hampstead & Westminster, Southgate

Bottom-six: Oxted, Beeston, East Grinstead, Cardiff & Met, Reading, University of Nottingham

Holcombe Phase Two fixtures:

10/02 – Old Georgians (A)

24/02 – Surbiton (H)

29/02 – Wimbledon (A) (re-scheduled due to Wimbledon's indoor European commitments)

02/03 – Hampstead & Westminster (H)

09/03 – Southgate (A)

Surbiton to host England Hockey League Finals Weekend [England Hockey]

England Hockey is delighted to announce that Surbiton Hockey Club will host the 2023-24 Premier Division finals.

The season-defining event will showcase the elite level of domestic hockey in England with the top four teams from the England Men's Hockey League and Women's Hockey League descending on Surbiton for Saturday 13 and Sunday 14 April 2024.

Finals weekend will see the culmination of a 21-match season where sides will compete in the semi-finals and final to be crowned Premier Division Champions with England's places in the EuroHockey League also on the line.

Finals weekend returned last year and saw Old Georgians retain the Men's Premier Division title while East Grinstead ended Surbiton's eight-season spell of dominance of the Women's Hockey League.

Rich Beer, England Hockey's Sport and Development Director said "We are looking forward to working collaboratively with Surbiton HC once again to deliver a fantastic Finals weekend.

"Last year was a brilliant event with spine-tingling shootouts and high-quality hockey on display supported by the excellent organising team at Surbiton who provided the perfect welcome to fans and teams.

"Together we plan to build on last year making it a great weekend for fans of club hockey hosted at a fantastic club venue."

Surbiton Club President, Andy Powdrell, said: "We are delighted to be hosting the Finals Weekend at Surbiton in April. Club hockey has a very special role to play in bringing our sport closer to its fans and making it accessible to all, and we are really proud to have the opportunity to put on a great event for players, supporters and officials.

"With the Finals Weekend this year taking place after league hockey has concluded for other teams, we hope to welcome supporters from far and wide to see the top club sides in the country battle it out for domestic honours ahead of an exciting summer of international hockey."

Further information regarding the schedule for the weekend and ticketing information will be released in the coming weeks.

UMPIRING CORNER

We are delighted to welcome back National League hockey with the news that two of our junior umpires have joined the #thirdteam at Holcombe in recent weeks. Congratulations to Jack Chester and Herbie Parr, who both successfully completed their Level 1 assessments at the first time of asking and are now fully Level 1 qualified. Well done to both of you, your efforts are very much appreciated especially when you consider the amount of playing you already do with the U16s, Kent, Talent Academy and men's section, and still find time to umpire. Thank you, both!

Proving that it is not just for our juniors, Mark Foakes also passed his Level 1 assessment in January. Mark has been umpiring regularly on our junior tournaments on Sundays and passed with an amazing score. Another very valuable addition to our #thirdteam - well done, Mark, and thank you.

Many thanks to everyone who has umpired over the last few weeks, often with late changes due to weather interruptions, and it has been quite cold stood at the side of the pitch! In January, our umpires of the week have been Mark Foakes (twice), Craig Snell (twice), Graham Sutton, Marcus Davies, Herbie Parr and Ian Shelley. Our umpires of the month are Mark Foakes and Craig Snell.

On Sunday, we are hosting two U12 tournaments and this requires at least 8 umpires. Where possible, we try to get these covered by the older juniors, which comes with its own problems this week as the U16 girls are away and they usually help out quite a bit. However, there has been a fantastic response from the U16 boys that are playing a match after the U12 tournaments finish. Thank you to Louis, Peter, Joe, Alex, Jack, Noah, Tom, Ed and Harrison.
